Strategies to Help Avoid Costly Financial Mistakes and Survive During Retirement

You and your spouse are cordially invited to attend a very special presentation for local residents ages 55 and over. This informative and entertaining event is by invitation only and fills quickly. This informational seminar is complimentary with no obligation, and nothing will be sold.

During this event we will reveal techniques and strategies to help you preserve your capital, potentially receive more income, find your appropriate risk tolerance and discuss tax efficient strategies. Best of all, you will leave with valuable information you can act upon immediately.

Topics include the following:

- How to take money out of your IRA tax-free through little known strategies.
- How you may increase your interest earnings- while safeguarding your principal from risk.
- Why leaving your 401(k) at your company after you retire may be a tax mistake!
- How you and your family can potentially reduce your taxes through the new tax laws.
- How to know if you are holding “lazy money.”
- How to stretch out your IRA for 50, 60 or even 70 years!
- And much more!
